

FOR HIGH SCHOOL FINE ARTS STUDENTS

-- VISUAL, LITERARY, TECHNICAL AND PERFORMING ARTS --

Application Deadline Thursday Oct. 6, 2016

The Cowichan Valley Arts Council (CVAC) Youth Outreach Program (YOP) is a way for high school students, who wish to become more serious about their visual, literary, technical or performing arts practice, to receive financial and mentorship support from the Cowichan Valley Arts Council for up to two years.

- ✚ bursaries of up to $500 over 2 years
 - ✚ monthly peer-support meetings
 - ✚ professional workshops and critiques
 - ✚ mentorship with professional artists
 - ✚ up to 6 exhibits and performances of their creative work over 2 years
-
- Applicant completes a written application – including a letter of introduction, a letter of reference, and examples of the student's own original creative work
 - Applicant and a parent or guardian attend an individual interview with YOP Co-ordinator and CVAC member artists
 - up to 3 candidates are chosen in any of literary, performing, technical and visual arts

Download application form at: www.cowichanvalleyartscouncil.ca

Or pick-up at CVAC PORTALS, Cowichan Valley Performing Arts Centre, 2687 James Street,
Duncan

Phone: 250 746-1633 e-mail: cvartscouncil@shaw.ca

