

What RECONCILIATION means to me

Reconciliation is A MONSTER that can take many forms
Between nations, and RACES, injustice and education systems
Between our women and our men.

BETWEEN US.

Between and AMONG Indigenous nations, THE PEOPLE, our Ancestors,
Our Past.

Reconcile the DEMONS put upon us and those WE PICKED UP
AND we continue to CARRY

WE NEED TO HEAL

Let THAT SHIT go

Men must heal so we CAN GO BACK

To our work here as Men.

WE had 1 job 2 do

LOOK after our Women

Provide Protect Defend Respect

That

Is what Reconciliation looks LIKE from here.

Meanwhile in Vanilla Land

“ooooohhh noooo! Could it be?

GENOCIDE?!

BUT WE'RE Canadian! You know... THE GOOD GUYS!

YOU have to LEARN OUR HISTORY,

Not the one YOU were told in schools.

Asking about your Faith, AND more importantly

Your own moral compass

If YOU the Roman Catholic Church were accused of

Crimes against Children

Would they not DEMAND redemption

From you?

Seek REDEMPTION 4

their SINS AGAINST

The Indigenous Men, Women and CHILDREN in Canada.

a Good CHRISTian WOULD AGREE

and that is what Reconciliation looks like to me.

- James Darin Corbiere

Waabshkaa Makwa